

Agnew Attacks Critics Of Administration

ST. CHARLES, Ill. (AP) — Whether on direct orders from the White House or not, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has joined what appears to be a broadening counter-offensive by the Nixon administration against its critics and accusers.

Addressing a Republican fundraising party here Saturday night, Agnew delivered an appeal to public opinion that in its forcefulness was reminiscent of his hammerings against the press two and three years ago.

The speech echoed some of President Nixon's own comments on Watergate, but aides of the vice president insisted the speech was developed by the Agnew staff without orders from the White House, with no White House input, and without White House approval.

Whatever its origins, the speech was certain to be well received by Nixon for what it said about Watergate and what it said about the Republican party and the public in general.

The 2,300 Republicans who paid $10 a ticket to hear Agnew were reassured that the party was not responsible for the Watergate affair and had not suffered as badly from it as might be assumed.

In fact, the vice president said, the GOP recently has won important elections in Georgia, Mississippi, Michigan, California and Maryland, and is in line for additional victories in Virginia and New Jersey. He said this was because "the American people are looking for outstanding candidates who intend to get on with the business of government and stop playing politics every single day of the week."

On the other hand, Agnew said, Watergate has become a "morbidity preoccupation" in Washington. He said that not only do the administration's opponents seek to destroy Nixon with it, but that they are breeding a "persecutorial atmosphere" and impeding government efforts to get on with more important affairs of state, thereby obstructing the will of the people.

Closely paralleling as they did the President's own criticism of the Senate Watergate committee, these comments drew strong response from the GOP faithful who cheered Agnew and interrupted his 26-minute speech 23 times with applause.

As expected, Agnew made only an indirect allusion to his own problems stemming from a federal grand jury kickback probe in Maryland.

But much of what he said about Watergate seemed applicable to his own case as well, particularly a remark that "we must remember that accusations are not adjudications of guilt." There also was an offhand comment added to his prepared text, that "it is very easy to go around accusing people of anything and the accusers should be closely examined before any dignity is given to them."

He acknowledged what the administration senses is a growing impatience with the Watergate hearings and was applauded when he said the chairman, Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., had been "doing a rain dance" in an effort to make Democrats grow, but might find himself in trouble "if public opinion continues to cool that rain"

Aides to the vice president said this theme is certain to be sounded by Agnew again and again in appearances over the coming weeks.

President Prods Congress To Act On Major Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a major new effort to put Watergate behind him, President Nixon told the Democratic-controlled Congress today that he is ready to compromise "on solutions to our national problems."

Submitting a special 15,000-word State of the Union message, Nixon urged action this year on his priority legislation and stated anew actions he opposes: a tax increase, red-ink spending, hefty defense cuts and the busing of school children to achieve racial balance.

Mingling compliments with criticism, Nixon said he welcomes "a congressional renaissance" and is "ready to find workable compromises wherever possible on solutions to our national problems."

While making repeated pledges of cooperation, the President emphasized that if Congress votes more money than he wants, he will not hesitate to veto spending bills and impound appropriations.

He also said he "will continue to oppose all efforts to strip the presidency of powers it must have to be effective"—an apparent threat to veto any legislation that would limit his war powers.

Nixon displayed the olive branch more prominently than the willow switch, however.

Asserting a belief in a strong Congress as well as a strong presidency, he said, "There can be no monopoly of wisdom on either end of Pennsylvania Avenue and there should be no monopoly of power."

"... If we proceed in a spirit of constructive partnership, our varying perspectives can be a source of great creativity rather than a cause of deadlock," Nixon said.

While saying Congress has yet to act on more than 50 of his proposals, Nixon focused attention on selected bills he said would meet "many pressing problems which must be solved with dispatch."

Skylab Crew Shuns Rest On Weekend

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — After more than seven weeks in space, the Skylab 2 astronauts are in great health and have an insatiable appetite for work.

Sunday was to have been a day off, but the astronauts requested a full slate of activities, allowing spare time only to take their weekly showers.

Alan L. Bean, Dr. Owen K. Garriott and Jack R. Lousma did the same thing on their five previous "off days."

The flight schedule for today, the 45th in the 59-day mission, is similar to that of the past several days — 12 hours of earth resources, solar astronomy, scientific and medical experiments.

"As long as we're up here, we might as well get everything we can out of this station," commander Bean reported. "You don't train for 2½ years to come up here and read a good book."

"Don't you guys ever lose your enthusiasm or your sense of humor?" Mission Control asked.

"Got to keep up the momentum. When you're hot, you're hot," Bean replied.

Cholera Claims 24th Victim

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — A 72-year-old man died of cholera today on the island of Sardinia, raising the death toll in Italy's outbreak of the disease to 24 in two weeks. Like most of those stricken, he had eaten shellfish.

Authorities ordered an autopsy for an 18-month-old girl who died Saturday at San Giorgio a Cremano, on the outskirts of Naples. The baby's father, a fisherman, had been hospitalized with cholera last week, and her mother reportedly refused to have her inoculated. Seventeen families who lived in the same apartment house moved into the local school.

3rd World Bloc Condemns Israel

ALGIERS (AP) — The fourth summit conference of nonaligned nations has ended with condemnation of Israel and U.S. Indochina policy, endorsement of Soviet restrictions on Jewish emigration and a pledge to fight "neocolonialist exploitation."

The Arabs were heartened by Prime Minister Fidel Castro's announcement at the closing session Sunday that Cuba was breaking diplomatic relations with Israel.

Castro's action brought prolonged applause from the delegates, but there was no immediate comment from Israel. Six African nations attending the conference have broken relations with the Jewish state in the past 18 months because of Arab pressure and economic aid.

Despite squabbles and animosities during their five-day meeting, the leaders from 76 countries made clear that they expected to exert greater influence on the major powers' conduct of international affairs.

"We are certain that no important decisions can be taken henceforth, whether in the field of disarmament, the organization of world trade or the renewal of the world monetary system, without the effective participation of the Third World," the conference chairman, President Houari Boumedienne of Algeria, said in his closing speech.

ROUNDTOWN

PICKAWAY County Commissioners Wayne Hines, Dick Tootle and Robert Liston whizzed through routine business this morning and then Liston and Hines headed for Salt Fork State Park where the state commissioners association is meeting. Tootle stayed home to take care of local matters for the commissioners.

SUNDAY's low temperature of 48 was the coldest since May 20 when a low of 45 was recorded. . . Better get out the longjohns. . . weatherman predicts temperatures in the low 50s tonight. . . Looks like the weather is getting ready for Pumpkin Show.

BEGINNING Wednesday the Van Camp Co. will be paving Route 188 within the city limits. . . The paving project will begin at Nicholas Drive on Northridge Road, and will end at Court Street. . . The project is being financed by the state. . . Motorists should plan their trips to avoid the area even though traffic will be maintained.

While Miss Mullins and Gray looked fatigued, Lucas, who has remained awake through the contest too, said he was "really draggin'."

"I try to be funny to keep things light," he said. "But I haven't been too funny for some time now — hysterical, yes."

The prize for the winner was originally $500 but the pot continued to grow through the ordeal by donations from spectators, who numbered more than 1,000 at times.

During the weekend days, cheers could be heard, encouragement was shouted and noises welled when a contestant appeared to be about ready to give up.

At one point, a woman contestant ran off screaming and cursing. Another young girl murmured "Goodnight, Mr. Lucas," and slipped off to sleep.

As they dropped out, local lifesquad men or physicians checked the contestants and they were taken home.

Each contestant was given seven minutes off every two hours for massages and personal needs.

Lucas, asked if he intended to promote the contest again next year, noted the strain brought on by sleeplessness and declared: "Hell no."

Herbert Kramer, head of the New Orleans Retail Grocers Association, said consumers will foot the bill for higher operating costs.

"We try and determine what price items are going to be on the shelf based on what they (suppliers) charge us," Kramer said. "Right now, we're working on a dollar-for-dollar increase — the increase that's passed on to us, we pass along."

Beef was the big question mark. Many cattlemen withheld livestock from market during the freeze and scattered shortages developed. The freeze was scheduled to end at midnight Tuesday and the early end to the ceiling caused some confusion.

"The cattlemen are very apprehensive," said John Olson, executive secretary of the Idaho Cattlemen's Association. "We don't know what will happen to prices. We're hoping they will become steady, but we don't know if they'll jump way out or drop."

Ken Boughton, director of the marketing division of the Kansas Department of Agriculture, said, "One person's guess (about prices) is as good as the next, but I've done a little reflecting on it. I think ... there will be a little bulge in price."

Boughton predicted prices would level off after a while and might actually decrease, but he added: "It's an untested market because we haven't seen how consumers will react."

Many people cited consumer resistance as the cause of a recent decrease in the price of pork and poultry, which skyrocketed after July 18 when controls were lifted on all foods except beef. The prices dropped when shoppers simply refused to buy.

Judd Jutson, meat operations director for Bashas' food markets in Phoenix, Ariz., said: "I believe if the government lets cattle go as high as they want and lets us go as high as we want, Mrs. Consumer will make the decision, because I think she is quite sick of it (the price spiral)."

Some experts said there would be large supplies on the market immediately after the freeze, causing prices to go down.

Larry Eliason of Merlin Eliason and Sons Packing Co. of Logan, Utah, said prices would "probably hold stable or go down."

"Any year after the first of August, the pastures start drying up," Eliason explained. "It's just the time of year when cattle are naturally moving."

In addition, he said, dairy farmers have been holding back animals who produce only small amounts of milk and would normally be sold for slaughter. "When they release them all, along with the feedlot cattle, there's going to be a big supply and prices may go down," Eliason said.

Credit Crunch Among Major Items Studied By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was confronted today with President Nixon's new blueprint on how he feels the nation's needs should be met.

Presumably, key elements of Nixon's concern are a trade bill, on which final action seems doubtful this year, and his package of special revenue-sharing funds for education, manpower, community development and law enforcement.

On the economy, Mansfield has said Congress has done all it can by giving Nixon the Economic Stabilization Act on which his Phase 4 controls are based.

But both houses are preparing to open new inquiries into problems associated with inflation.

The House Banking Committee is opening hearings into the credit crunch, which has brought some of history's highest interest rates. The Senate subcommittee on consumer economics will hear testimony later this month on rapid rises in the price of food and other commodities.

The House, meanwhile, scheduled a vote today on citing Watergate conspirator G. Gordon Liddy for contempt.

Liddy, who has been described as the mastermind of the plot to burglarize Democratic national headquarters, refused even to take the oath earlier this year in an appearance before an Armed Services subcommittee.

In the Senate, a vote was arranged for the afternoon on Nixon's nomination of Russell E. Train to head the Environmental Protection Agency.

The Senate also planned final consideration today of a bill authorizing $800 million over two years in matching grants for operation of mass-transit systems.

Hillsboro Starlings Shot Down

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP)—An undetermined number of starlings were killed in this southern Ohio town Saturday night in a City Council-sanctioned hunt.

People "just got tired of shovelling the droppings off their sidewalks," said Hillsboro Mayor Dean Hill, who watched 12 area marksmen open fire on thousands of birds.

Hill said "no way" when asked if he took part in the shooting. He said the birds were flying so high that in the first five minutes the marksmen killed none. About 10-12 residents watched the killings, Hill said.

"The birds were too high, you might've been able to get 'em with a cannon," he said.

Many humane groups protested the killings. Cleveland Amory, national president of the Fund for Animals, sent the city telegrams expressing shock and urging postponement of the shooting so that "a better, more effective, humane" method of getting rid of the birds could be found.

"It's just the big city people who are concerned" Hill said. "We've got a lot of farmers here for the Highland County Fair, and they are telling us to kill all we can. Those birds will clean the feed out of a hog pen—enough to fatten 10 pigs."

Weather

Mostly sunny today, high upper 70s. Clear tonight, low mid 50s. Partly cloudy Tuesday, high near 80. Possibility of rain, zero per cent today and tonight and 10 per cent tomorrow.

Girl Off Rocker; Man Wins $700

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Lionel Gray, 26, of Florence, won the rocking chair endurance contest after 109 hours and 50 minutes at 12:43 a.m. today thanks to a spilled cup of coffee.

The contest was one of a number of events staged to celebrate the 175th anniversary of Boone County.

Gray won over his lone remaining adversary, Nancy Mullins, 17, of Erlanger.

Miss Mullins, who said she was after the approximately $700 in prize money because "I'm going to college next year. I know I'm going to need some kind of a car to get around in," lost her temper and bowed out.

Judges said she had started to nod off when the more than 100 spectators let out with a shout. She jumped up, forgot she had a hot cup of coffee in her hand, and it spilled on her rocking chair.

She threw down the cup and said she was "quitting. I'm not going to sit in that coffee."

The contest started in a funeral home parking lot Wednesday with 53 rocking souls. By Sunday, with two left, the contest was moved to a nearby tire store to get out of the rain.

Spectators, numbering about 100, remained through the hours after midnight.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices opened strong Monday, rebounding from Friday's mild correction.

Advances led declines on the New York Stock Exchange by 3 to 2.

Opening Big Board prices included First National City, off 1 to 46 1/4; Texaco, down 1/4 to 29 3/4; Walt Disney, off 3/4 to 78 1/4; and Pittston, up 3/8 to 25 3/4.

Stock market prices were mixed Friday, as the Dow Jones industrial average fell 2.41 to 898.63 in moderately brisk trading.

Analysts noted that the market has risen sharply in the last couple of weeks and said Friday's decline was probably technical in nature.

The government announcement of soaring wholesale prices for August may have also triggered some selling, brokers said.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index gained .63 to 101.58.

This year $3,401 was received in pledges, two and one-half times the $1,406 donated locally in the 1972. Jaycee Telethon project chairman Steve Barthelmas, second from left, is shown with some of the SOS volunteers who manned the phones locally. Jaycees wish to thank those who assisted in making the Telethon a big success in Circleville.

Sulphur Spring Baked Goods Contest Slated

Top bakers of the area are invited to take part in this year's baked goods contests at the Williamsport Sulphur Spring Festival, which begins Wednesday.

Will the reigning grand champion bakers retain their titles or will this year's contests produce new champions in the culinary arts? That question will be settled in the competition Thursday and Friday.

The schedule for 1973 with rules and regulations was announced by chairmen Marabel Drummond and Ruth Schleich.

THURSDAY
Candies, Cookies, Bread

Registration will begin at 6 p.m. and close promptly at 7 at the Pavilion for entries in this division.

Candies are divided into the following classes: chocolate fudge, divinity, party mints, peanut butter fudge, any other kind.

Cookie Classes are lemon, sugar, oatmeal, party, any other kind.

Quick breads are coffee cake, nut bread, gingerbread, muffins, any other kind.

Yeast breads are bread, doughnuts, rolls, any other kind.

Junior bakers will be judged separately. For them, candy is in classes of fudge, divinity, mints, any other kind. Quick breads are gingerbread, muffins, nut bread, any other kind.

Cookie classes are oatmeal, chocolate chip, party, any other kind.

Yeast breads are bread, doughnuts, rolls, any other kind.

All entries must be on non-returnable bases as they become the property of the Festival for sale following judging. Breads should be a complete unit with doughnuts, rolls, cookies, etc., at least one dozen. Candy should be one-half pound.

FRIDAY
Pies and Cakes

Registration will begin at 6 and close at 7 p.m. at the Pavilion. Junior bakers will have the same divisions and classes but be judged separately.

Pie classes are cherry, apple, pumpkin or any other kind.

Classes for cake are chocolate, white, nut, angel food (iced or uniced) and any other kind.

U.S. Court Gets Lukens Challenge

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Sen. Donald E. Lukens, R-4 Mid-dletown, today challenged in federal court an Ohio law that has kept him from being a candidate in 1974 for governor.

Lukens said the law disqualifying a candidate who does not file his personal expenses on time from running in any other election for five years is unconstitutional.

Specifically, Lukens asked that he be declared eligible to run for the U.S. Senate in 1974.

He said he is hopeful a court decision would invalidate the Ohio Statute in general, allowing him to run for governor if he desired.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown rejected Lukens' candidacy for governor Feb. 21 because the lawmaker was 12 days late in filing his personal expense statement from his 1972 state Senate race.

The Ohio Supreme Court unanimously upheld the decision a short time later.

Lukens' statement, ironically, showed no money received and none spent.

Campaign funds were channeled through the Lukens for State Senator Committee, which did file on time.

Deputies Investigate Four Minor Accidents

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated a rash of single car accidents over the weekend.

Donna J. Smith, 49, Columbus, was taken to Mt. Carmel, West Hospital, Columbus, for neck, back and chest injuries received in a single car accident 8:36 a.m. Sunday on State Route 56.

Ms. Smith was driving west on Route 56 at the intersection of Blain Road when she lost control of the auto.

Swerving back and forth across the highway, the auto finally came to stop after hitting a fence post.

Sheriff's Deputy James C. Deal investigated the accident.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Hoover cited Judy A. Henry, 30, Route 1, Ashville, for no operator's license, when she was involved in a single car accident 10:15 a.m. Sunday on the Harrisburg-Fairfield Road.

Ms. Henry was driving west on the Harrisburg-Fairfield Road when she went off the right side of the road into a ditch, striking a farm fence.

Eighteen-year-old Carolyn S. Stanhope, Route 6, Chillicothe, received possible broken ribs, abrasions and contusions when she was involved in a one-car accident 4:05 p.m. Sunday in the RCA parking lot.

Entering the parking lot, Miss Stanhope went to the right side of the road striking the curb causing her to lose control of her auto.

Impact of the curb caused the Stanhope auto to swerve going off the road on the left side.

Investigating the accident was Sheriff's Deputy Billy Huffman.

A farm animal owned by David Blue, Route 5, Circleville, was the cause of a single car accident 10:01 p.m. Sunday on the Circleville-Groveport Road.

Shelby J. Kitchen, 20, Ashville, was taken to Berger Hospital by her father, when she complained of chest and back injuries.

Miss Kitchen was traveling north on the Circleville-Groveport Road when she hit a farm animal which was standing in the middle of the road.

Sheriff's Deputy James C. Deal investigated the accident.

County To Receive General Funds

Pickaway County will receive $570.02 of the total of $224,739.58 distributed to Ohio counties as a general relief subsidy, according to State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson.

The program is wholly state financed and is for the purpose of helping to defray the administrative and general relief costs of the individual county welfare operations. It is in addition to federal-state financed assistance programs, such as Aid for Dependent Children, Aged, Disabled and Blind.

Open Letter

Dear friends,

We seldom think of the value of making funeral arrangements as part of the necessary process of making the death a reality to the bereaved. It is more than mere 'busy work'. Rather, it helps the survivors to accept the distressing fact of death which is essential to mental health, and allows them to express a final act of love on behalf of the deceased.

Respectfully,

Their Biggest Problems

DEAR ABBY: You asked senior citizens what their biggest problems were. Money? Health? Loneliness? Boredom?

I can't speak for the men, but I can tell you that the biggest problems most women have are as follows:

When husbands retire they follow the wife around all day remarking on how she does the housework, cooking, etc. and none of it is complimentary.

Also, he never lets his wife go anywhere alone. He has to tag along because his own interest in sex is waning, and he starts accusing her of seeing other men. In other words, they get jealous because they can't perform as well themselves.

Men retire, but we middleclass wives continue to do our regular housework because of our limited income, which has been worsened by inflation.

Doctors who see senior citizens will confirm the above, for which there is no solution at the present time. But with women's liberation, maybe the future will be better for coming generations.

I can't sign my name because all phone calls and mail are monitored here, and I'll have to carry this around in my purse until I can sneak it into the mailbox.

TRAPPED IN FORT MEYERS

DEAR ABBY: Yes, I have a problem. How does a senior citizen find a place to live? Had my name in for one project for two years, and the building started to sink. Applied to get into another and was told they were filled, and had a waiting list of 500. Something should be done about housing for us. I'm not ready for a nursing home yet.

EASTERNER

DEAR ABBY: I'm 75, and a widower. I made my first trip to a foreign country at age 70. At 71, I started making my own sourdough

Canton Firms Charged With Law Violations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Natural Resources charged two Canton firms Friday with violation of the state's oil and gas laws.

The Clay County Production Co., Inc., was charged with polluting land and water with oil that leaked from a storage tank and the L and M Gas Co. was charged with polluting land with escaping oil from a disposal pit.

Public Defender System Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee will delve into major proposals on abortion, news media shield laws and probate court reform between now and next January.

But, Chairman Paul E. Gillmor, R-2 Port Clinton, says he doesn't expect his panel will get into another big bill approved by the House — to establish a statewide public defender system in Ohio.

Gillmor said he expects his committee to proceed "with deliberate caution" on the public defender bill. "It is our feeling that there is no hurry on it, and we want to consider it carefully," he said.

The House completed action on the defender bill in the waning hours of the 1973 session before adjourning until January. Gillmor's committee, and others, are expected to hold interim hearings on some of the major bills that were left pending.

Earlier, the House passed and sent to the Senate a complex and controversial bill aimed at regulating abortions in Ohio.

A U.S. Supreme Court decision earlier in the year struck down Ohio's antiquated law which prohibited abortions except under strictly defined circumstances.

Proposals to protect newsmen from having to disclose the sources of their information and to streamline the probate court system were heard at various stages by both chambers during the eight-month session. None was passed, however.

Gillmor conceded that these and other matters deserved priority treatment, but said it would be a mistake to act upon them without appropriate hearings.

"We can't pass them in 10 minutes," he said.

Rep. George E. Mastics, R-3 Cleveland, main sponsor of the public defender bill, said he had hoped the Senate committee would start hearings on it prior to next year.

But he understands, he said, that the Senate needs time.

The bill didn't get through the House until after it and similar proposals were considered in that chamber for seven years during four separate legislative sessions, he recalled.

Mastics' bill would create a 13-member Public Defender Commission which would provide lawyers to represent indigents accused of crimes and subsequently brought to trial. The

Voter Registration Expands In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Six more Ohio counties will have countywide voter registration for the first time this fall, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said Friday.

Brown said that will bring to 62 the number of counties registering voters on a countywide basis.

Brown predicted a bill requiring registration in every county will be passed by the General Assembly in 1974.

Four counties have partial voter registration programs, and 22 have no programs at all.

A Page Of Opinion

From Another's Eyes

An American business executive has proposed a truce between farmers and consumers, to end a confrontation he believes may be getting out of hand. Joseph P. Sullivan understands the plight of both the farmer and the grocery shopper and he is convinced they are making a mistake by directing anger at one another.

Some consumers are angry because of the high rate of inflation which has hit the food shelves over the last year. Not knowing the causes of the price hikes, they blame the farmers. Some farmers, in return, have shown an intolerance for consumer concern, employing boycotts in a few instances to keep food products off the market.

Both are victims of the same set of circumstances. Rising demand, unprecedented exports, general inflation and government interference in the free market have combined to upset the American food basket.

The same circumstances, it might be added, have upset conditions more disastrously in other countries—which is the reason for the heavy U.S. exports.

Unnecessary irritations do not ameliorate the situation. Sullivan's idea is for both the producer and the consumer to get to know more about one another's outlooks and problems. That kind of understanding could be useful as well in a number of fields far removed from the farm.

Voters Ignore Watergate

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

There is a notion, cultivated by some commentators who should know better, that the conservatives, working in such organizations as Young Americans for Freedom and the American Conservative Union, are joining forces with the "new politics" Left to "get" Richard Nixon. We hear of an "inquisition" run by "righties" asking due repentance and reparation from the beleaguered President.

What the "righties" (a new pejorative term) are actually asking is something much less portentous than their critics imply; they merely want Nixon to live up to some of his campaign promises, beginning with a cutback on Federal spending so that the budget may be balanced and inflation (which comes from a surfeit of government-issued paper) may thereby be halted. This is not trying to "get" anybody; it is simply an effort to free Nixon to get on with his business of saving the U. S. from becoming the "Brazil of the North."

The idea that such organizations as Young Americans for Freedom and the American Conservative Union are "extremist" is a trifle idiotic, anyway, unless it is extremist to believe in such traditional things as an honest currency, a reasonably strong military defense, a return of power to the local scene, and the morality of the Ten Commandments. Fortunately we have just had tangible proof that voters don't regard conservative values as something on the fringe. In a special election in Maryland, Robert Bauman, a 36-year-old Republican, beat a 60-year-old Democratic veteran, Frederick C. Malkus, for a U. S. Congressional seat left vacant by the suicide of William O. Mills, who turned a shotgun on himself after it had been revealed that he had received an unrecorded $25,000 campaign contribution from the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President. Bauman got 51 per cent of the votes cast in a district south of Baltimore that has normally been two-top-one Democratic. Malkus had been the favorite, supported by the Baltimore Sun and other state newspapers.

The interesting thing about Bauman is that he was once the national chairman of Young Americans for Freedom. He was also a founding member of the American Conservative Union, and for a number of years, before he went into Maryland state politics, he edited the ACU's excellent publication, Battle Line. This background, derided as "ultra-conservative" by the papers supporting Malkus (who is something of a conservative himself), did not seem to hurt Bauman a bit with the voters. They took his forthright professions of belief in conservative principles at

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Human sacrifices were sometimes part of the religious ceremonies of the Aztec Indians in Mexico. But legend reports one Aztec was put to death because the smoke from his household fire had soiled his neighbors' air. A bit drastic — but it solved the pollution problem.

Your foot may seem homely to you, but by design experts the human foot has long been considered one of the finest examples of architectural construction. It has 52 distinct bones.

There are from 60,000 to 80,000 species of flies in the world, ranging in size from the tiny midge to 3-inch-long robber flies, and many are harmful rather than hurtful to man. Two scientists are now testing a new method to exterminate the pesky horsefly. It is an artificial scent which they hope will make the flies too excited to mate.

Neither the movie house nor television has killed the popularity of old-fashioned amusement parks. There are still 725 of them in the United States, and they make about $300 million profit a year.

Jail is no place to be if you are in poor health or have a chronic disease requiring skilled treatment. A medical survey of nearly 3,000 U.S. jails found that 65 per cent had no facilities for anything but first aid treatment. Only 17 per cent were equipped to treat the mentally ill, drug addicts or alcoholics.

It all adds up: We don't guarantee these figures, but a statistician once estimated that a 50-year-old man has worked more than 6,000 days, slept 5,500 days, walked 800 days, spent 1,500 days eating, been sick 450 days, and consumed 8½ tons of bread, eight tons of meat and drank 7,000 gallons of liquids. Well, it all helps pass the time — and that's the biggest problem in life.

Worth remembering: "It's the kind of heart, not the type of house, that makes a home."

Sound advice: If your children ask you to give them a young walrus for Christmas, tell them no. A growing walrus eats 100 pounds of fish a day.

It was Plato who observed, "The boy is, of all wild beasts, the most difficult to manage."

Marijuana Crop Brings Arrests

WINFIELD, W. Va. (AP) — Sheriff's deputies were to burn $30,000 worth of marijuana today after chopping it down in a cultivated field and arresting four persons accused of growing it.

The arrests were made Sunday after sheriff's deputies hid near the field and waited for the accused pot farmers to arrive. Putnam County Deputy Sheriff Dennis Edwards said the marijuana plot was located about five miles from here. Police were tipped to the location of the field by a squirrel hunter, Edwards said.

Nearly 500 plants, some of them 10 feet high, Edwards said, were cut from the field.

Set Tough Ohio Water Control Laws

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio will soon have tougher water pollution control laws if the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency approves regulations signed into law by the governor last week.

Federal approval is expected early next year, giving Ohio EPA officials authority to issue permits to industries and municipalities under the National Pollution Discharge Elimination System.

The system is a tough, new program aimed at completely eliminating foreign discharges in U. S. waterways by 1985.

An Ohio EPA spokeswoman said new state laws allow EPA investigators to make surprise checks of discharges and to levy fines and penalties against polluters for violating rules.

The Ohio EPA has issued six interim permits with special permission from the federal agency.

But spokeswoman Barbara Kaufmann said all of those permits are being appealed by the industries involved to the Ohio Environmental Board of Review. The industries feel they are too strict, she said.

Violation of water pollution laws may bring a $2,500 to $25,000 fine for the first offense, and up to two years in prison and a $50,000 fine for a second offense.

Illinois Firm Ordered To Halt Ohio Actions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Atty. Gen. William J. Brown said Friday Steed Industries, Inc., of Itasca, Ill., was ordered to temporarily halt business operations in Ohio because of a violation of the state Consumer's Sales Practices Act.

Brown said the company sells its oil, gasoline and transmission additives by continually selling sales positions in a manner similar to a giant chain letter.

The attorney general said Steed pressures consumers into buying high-priced sales positions by claiming the price of the positions will soon increase.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I have just learned that I have diverticulitis, which was found during a routine series of X-rays of the intestines.

I don't really understand the condition. A friend told me he once had diverticulosis. Are they the same?

Mr. S.R., N.C.

Dear Mr. R.:

It is not unusual for diverticula (tiny pouches) to be found in people who have no symptoms related to their presence.

A diverticulum is a small sac that protrudes from the inside of the large intestine, or colon. This tiny bubble is due to a weakness of the thin muscle wall at the point where a blood vessel nourishes it.

When many diverticula are present, the condition is known as diverticulosis. When the diverticula are inflamed, the condition is known as diverticulitis. That is the distinction.

Many people with diverticulosis have no symptoms related to the intestinal tract. Therefore, no treatment is suggested. However, when diverticulitis is found to exist, patients are placed on a preventive low-roughage diet, with medication to loosen the stool.

In addition, a larger intake of water is suggested to those who have no other medical reasons for limiting fluid intake.

When an irritation of one or more of the little pouches is present, as in diverticulitis, treatment is devoted to the cure and control of the "itis," or infection.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans live in a world of the future when they can, planning, anticipating, dreaming — of the vacation to come, of the pay raise due, the new car, the new house, the better life.

This has long been the way of people who had reason to expect that over the long run they would make real material progress.

The approach can help make current existence bearable and permit one to forget the past. And that is what many Americans of all levels are doing. They are writing off 1973, and not just because the summer vacation season is over.

The economic big leap forward that so many people had planned was tripped up. The financial plans of ordinary citizens and of George P. Shultz, the Treasury secretary, were clobbered.

High interest rates put an end to the housing dream. Rising prices absorbed pay raises. Shortages destroyed the American belief of plenty of everything for everyone.

Most glaringly, the optimistic forecasts that had consistently been right were shown to be wrong.

Now, after the "terrible drama" of August, as Shultz described the 5.8 per cent rise in wholesale prices, most Americans realize that their instinctive and negative suspicions were more believable than governmental positive thinking.

The belief that the future holds more promise than the present is not as firmly held as before, and consumer surveys show conclusively that this is so.

A pay raise, for example, does not necessarily mean that a working man can put more food on his table. He may be able to afford it, but might not find it. He might find a house, but he also might find it priced $10,000 more than it was a year earlier.

Americans who could afford to travel abroad were shocked at how little their dollar would buy. Those who stayed home were amazed at the throngs of big-spending foreign tourists from Europe and Japan. Americans no longer were unique in their wealth.

Those who practiced thrift, another

I need to have my stomach analyzed and I am terrified. I don't know what it means nor how it's done.

Mrs. G.Y., Texas

Dear Mrs. Y.:

By the time this column appears the procedure will have been done and you will be undoubtedly surprised that it was painless and easily performed.

You had a right to inquire about this stomach analysis and to have all of your questions answered. The reason you were denied reassurance was that you asked no questions.

By now you know that the stomach contents are painlessly removed by passing a thin rubber tube, usually through the nose, into the mouth, and down into the stomach.

The back of the throat is momentarily anesthetized with a spray medication. The tube, made cold by resting in ice, is passed without real distress.

Many things are learned from a gastric analysis. The contents are studied for the presence of lactic acid, and hydrochloric acid, both normally found in the stomach contents.

When there is a deficiency, as there usually is in pernicious anemia, it is an important diagnostic aid.

Patients with stomach ulcers may have an excessive amount of hydrochloric acid. The contents can also be studied for the possibility of infections, such as tuberculosis when it is suspected.

The presence of blood or tumor cells can be determined from this procedure.

honored ideal, discovered they were penalized. Money in the bank at 5 per cent sometimes decreased in buying power after the costs of inflation and taxes were deducted.

Faith in government itself was diminished by events. No greater intervention in the private economy was attempted in recent years; no greater failure in influencing the economy could easily be recalled.

And the remaining years of this decade are almost certain to be heirs to this continued government intervention in what had been considered private affairs.

Opium-Laced Marijuana In Country

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marijuana laced with opium, a combination designed to hook kids on narcotics, is beginning to come into the United States, says the chairman of a special House narcotics subcommittee.

Rep. Lester L. Wolff, D-N.Y., who just returned from a factfinding tour of Southeast Asia, said Friday that the spiked pot is being distributed by Asiatic dope peddlers and sold as straight marijuana.

Marijuana is considered non-addictive by some drug authorities. Opium is addictive.

Wolff said many persons who are reluctant to use hard drugs have no qualms about smoking marijuana.

"I first heard about it on Guam. From the information I received, it appears that this (the opium laced marijuana) is being smuggled into the states on U.S. military aircraft," Wolff said.

A spokesman for the Drug Enforcement Administration said that during the Vietnam war it was not unusual for GIs to mix heroin with marijuana. But the spokesman said this was the first he has heard of pot being mixed with opium and then sold as straight marijuana.

MR. AND MRS. ALAN M. SHULL

Emmett Chapel U.M. Church Setting For Marriage Vows

Miss Lisa E. Orsini of Marion and Mr. Alan M. Shull of Circleville were united in marriage 2:30 p.m. July 21st in Emmett Chapel United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Raymond Welch officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Atkinson of Marion, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn F. Shull of Cleveland.

The bride selected for her wedding day a silk organza gown with victorian collar outlined in Venise lace, sheer yoke, fitted bodice and princess line skirt outlined in Venise lace.

The attached train had vertical appliques of matching lace as did the sheer sleeves. The Camelot headpiece held a cathedral length veil outlined with seed pearls and matching lace.

Maid of honor was Ms. Shelly Paul of Marion. Ms. Debbie Schwindt of Columbus, Ms. Kathy Kneec of Williamsport and Ms. Marilyn Harper of Bylesville were bridesmaids.

Mr. Lance Shull of Cleveland served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Gary Thompson of Washington C.H., Mr. Bill Oliver of Logan and Mr. Fred Strawser of Circleville.

A half-hour of music preceded the ceremony by Ms. Katie Whamsley, organist, and Mr. Fred Strawser.

League Discusses Hearing Clinic

Plans for the Hearing Clinic to be held Oct. 5th and 6th were discussed at the Tuesday meeting of Circleville Child Development League in the home of Mrs. Wayne Burmaster, 1945 Sioux Drive.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Dan Hickman told the past history of Hedges House, the boy's group home in Circleville, and explained her responsibilities there. A question and answer period followed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Stant to Mrs. David Berkibell, Mrs. Burmaster, Mrs. Tom Duvall, Mrs. Hickman, Mrs. Tony Kamler, Mrs. Wayne Lash.

Sea World Program Viewed By Pickaway Senior Citizens

Mrs. Fannie Brooks was the tour chairman and guide on the bus of Pickaway Senior Citizens, Wednesday when they made a trip to Sea World, located 25 miles south of Cleveland, near Aurora, Ohio.

Leaving Circleville at 7:30 a.m. they stopped for a coffee break at a restaurant, reaching their destination at 11:30 a.m. After a snack, the group was off to see the shows.

First were the Lumber Jacks and skiing. Featured were the daring kite flyer and Sunja, the water skiing elephant.

Next was the Dolphin Show, featuring the Sea World Dolphins in their dramatic pilot rescue. Then came the Ding-A-Ling Brothers Circus with trained seals, penguins, and a 2,000 elephant seal. Last, but not least, the world's first trained killer whale, Shamu.

After viewing the displays and exhibits, the group started back to Circleville by way of Akron, where they had dinner.

Making the trip were: Fanny Brooks, tour guide, Bob Brooks, Louise Heine, Galina Ivascu, Pauline Jones, Alton Stonerock, Helen Newlon, Blanche Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wolford, Maneva Ross, Ethel Boyer, Mary Clark, Katherine Wynkoop, Agnes Ragland, Bessie Good, Hazel Harvey, Catherine Hawks, marvine Dudleson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shriver, Eunice Shy, Adella Huffman, Alice Scothorn, Isabella Badger, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Smith, Margaret Ater, Jennie Eccard, Bessie Radcliffe, Pauline Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Downs, Roberta Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Robinson and Helen Valentine.

50th Seitz Family Reunion Held At Ted Lewis Park

The 50th annual Seitz Reunion was held recently at Ted Lewis Park in Circleville with 61 relatives and friends attending.

The invocation was given by Chester Allison preceding the ceremony.

A short business meeting was called to order by president, Harvey Seitz, who directed election of officers for the coming year. Harvey Seitz and Marcella Barnhart were re-elected president and secretary-treasurer respectively and Owen Seitz is vice president.

Robert Garrison, Dewey Seitz and Nolan Seitz were appointed by the president as the committee for next year.

Gifts were presented to Gladys Seitz, who had attended the most reunions, 47 out of 50; Chester Allison, who traveled the greatest distance; Harry Priest, the oldest person present and his wife, Mrs. Harry Priest, was the oldest Seitz present.

Present at the first and 50th reunion were: Gladys Seitz, Mrs. Artie Clary, Vernon Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Priest, Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Nighman, Oscar Seitz and Chester Allison.

The first reunion was held at Mt. Olive in Vinton County in 1923. Throughout the years reunions have been held at Mt. Olive, Allensville, Locust Grove, Walnut Grove, Chillicothe Park, Mound City Park, Bob and Addie Seitz, Chauncey Ringer's and now since 1955 at Ted Lewis Park.

The annual event was begun by Harley and Alva Seitz with the descendants of John Sr. and Hannah Rockhold Seitz expected to attend.

They were the parents of: Jacob Seitz, whose wife was Sarah Brewster; Elisha Seitz, who was first married to Sarah Tatman and then to Bettie Dixon; John Wesley Seitz, with Matilda Sims as his wife; John Wesley Seitz, whose first wife was Carolyn Randall and the second, Lucinda, Wolfe; Susan Seitz married Marshal Walker and Hannah Seitz married Jarred Randall.

The 1974 reunion will be held the first Sunday in August at Ted Lewis Park in Circleville.

Eucalyptus Threat Studied By Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — An emergency eucalyptus bill, aimed at avoiding a big blaze in the East San Francisco Bay Hills, is running into fire on Capitol Hill amid a battle over federal aid.

Backers argue the bill is needed to avert or lessen the possibility of a disaster from dry trees filled with highly combustible eucalyptus oil. Opponents claim the legislation would set a dangerous precedent and is inflationary.

"If the people of California believe that these eucalyptus trees represent the threat that they seem to think they do, we maintain that the state of California should pick up the $11 million tab out of its $850 million treasury surplus," said six Republicans on the House Agriculture Committee. They urged the House to kill the bill.

But the bill's supporters, including a majority of the Agriculture Committee, contended the legislation would help solve "an extraordinary problem not addressed under current interpretations of federal law — a threat of forest fire sweeping through a populated area carrying with it a high probability of major federal disaster despite exhausting local efforts to abate the threat."

Last December, an unprecedented freeze left a ghostly brown forest of some two million eucalyptus trees in the hills above Oakland and Berkeley, Calif. Thus, the committee reported to the House, 2,700 acres of trees ranging as high as 150 feet have been "transformed into a volatile fuel that carries the potential of a holocaust."

Rather than "providing an unwise precedent inherent in a direct grant of federal funds without additional local participation, the committee ... feels that the more proper course is to provide additional federal funds, contingent on matching efforts within the state of California," the report said.

Therefore, a Senate-passed bill was revamped by the House committee and is due to be put to a House vote on Tuesday.

Almost two billion dollars in debts will be wiped out this year in the nation's bankruptcy courts. Almost one American in every 1,000 will take this means of "getting out from under."

Most of them will emerge with a clean slate. However, there are certain kinds of obligations that bankruptcy does not touch. The most important are:

- 1) Taxes less than three years old. This includes taxes owed to federal, state, or local governments.
- 2) Debts based on family obligations. This includes alimony and child support.
- 3) Debts based on a written false financial statement. Suppose, for example, that in obtaining a personal loan you deceived the lender by purposely understating your liabilities. Under these circumstances, you would ordinarily remain liable for the loan even after going through bankruptcy.
- 4) Debts based on "wilful and malicious" injury inflicted on persons or property.

Usually this involves liability for causing an automobile accident. Thus: A drunken driver, travelling at high speed on a rainy night, swerved across the double line and smashed into an oncoming car. Held liable afterward in damages, he sought refuge in bankruptcy. But a court said bankruptcy did not wipe out this debt, because his driving was not just negligent but "wilful and malicious."

Non-auto injuries may also be considered wilful and malicious. In another case, a man allowed his vicious bulldog to run free even after it had bitten three pedestrians. When a fourth victim went to court and won a sizeable verdict, the dog's owner tried to escape through bankruptcy.

But again, a court held him still liable. The judge said bankruptcy laws were meant to protect the hapless debtor, not the malicious wrongdoer. A Pickaway County Bar Association, An American Bar Association and Ohio State Bar Association public service feature by Will Bernard.

Local Granger Participates In State Conference

"Power Planning and Doing" was the theme of the Ohio State Lecturers' Conference held at the Granville Inn over the weekend.

Serving as one of the consultants for the meeting was Paul Dunkle of Saltcreek Valley Grange. His workshop was "Working With A Smile" which consisted of ideas for grange programs using music and games.

Dunkle assisted the Ohio State Grange Lecturer, Bernice Arter, with the conferences helping with recreation and serving as host for the noon luncheon.

During the Saturday evening program, the Pickaway County Youth Group presented a musical play "Beanville Grange Goes Operatic."

Attending the conference were lecturers from 29 counties and many state officers. Also in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brake of Michigan. Brake is the National Grange Lecturer.

Demand For Steel Hits Record Levels

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— The availability of steel, not its price, was what worried steel customers this summer as demand reached record levels, Industry Week magazine reported.

The magazine said that steel buyers failed to share "the concern of the Cost of Living Council over the impact of steel price increases."

There was little good news so far as availability was concerned, however. Steel mills predict they will have to continue selling on an allocation basis well into next year, and there were few takers to the many offers for long-term commitments.

In addition, a recent heat wave helped cut weekly steel production to its lowest level so far this year, the magazine said.

The magazine estimated output at 2,710,000 net tons for the week ending Sept. 8, down from the preceding week's 2,730,000 net tons. In the first months of 1973, weekly steel production ran at 3 million tons.

While equipment breakdowns and the long holiday weekend had an effect on the total, "the extreme heat of the last few weeks has posed further production problems," the magazine said.

"For example, some mills experienced a big backup in coils of hot rolled sheet because the coils could not be cooled fast enough for the next step in processing."

Customers' attempts to secure long-term commitment from the companies generally meet with failure since the steel mills "have to take care of regular customers," the magazine said.

The mills have long since scrapped the first-come, first-served basis for accepting orders, the magazine said.

"If that were the policy under present demand conditions, the tonnage would be gone almost immediately, mills reason, leaving nothing for major customers who order on a minimum leadtime."

A breakdown in negotiations between the auto companies and the United Auto Workers might provide some relief, the magazine said. It noted that the companies have "scheduled record production of trucks and passenger cars for September."

The magazine's weekly price composite on No. 1 heavy melting material rose from $56.17 per gross ton to $57.83, the highest mark since January 1957.

Rain, Fog Cover Wide Areas Of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dense fog shrouded the middle Mississippi Valley today as thundershowers dotted the map at widely scattered locations.

A few thundershowers lingered in the central and southern Rockies, from the middle Mississippi Valley to the central Appalachians and along the Gulf and South Atlantic coasts.

Charleston, S.C., was swamped with 3 inches of rain Sunday night and early today.

Cool, dry air covered the northern two thirds of the nation. The Southwest was warm and dry; the Southeast warm and humid.

Oregon temperatures Sunday offered wide extremes. Brookings in the southwestern corner of the state registered a high of 103 degrees while 60 miles north at Cape Blanco, the temperature was only 58. The temperature difference was caused by a warming mountain breeze at Brookings and a sea breeze at Cape Blanco.

The weekend was mostly rainy and foggy over large parts of the nation. Large hailstones pounded homes and cars in Casper, Wyo., Saturday afternoon. No injuries were reported. Up to five inches of rain drenched parts of the Midwest.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 37 at Reed City, Mich., to 84 at Needles, Calif.

Grange News

Saltcreek Valley Grange met Tuesday evening with 24 members and two guests, Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Clark present.

Rev. Ray Mann was welcomed as a new member.

Master Francis Fraunfelter conducted the business meeting.

Paul Dunkle gave a report on the Pickaway County youth and their activities.

Women's Activities Chairman Donna Beougher thanked the members for their help at the sale dinner and asked for pies and help for the Saturday sale at Raymond Hedges.

A thank you card from Kathryn Whisler was read thanking everyone for the gift received while she was in the hospital.

Hoyt Timmons thanked the grange members for their cards and prayers while he was in the hospital.

New officers elected are: Francis Fraunfelter, master; Hoyt Timmons, overseer; Fred DeLong, steward; Paul Dunkle, lecturer; Rev. Ray Mann, chaplain; Virgil Timmons, assistant steward; Gladys Hedges, secretary; Arley Judy, treasurer; Neal Wolfe, gate keeper; Donna Beougher, lady assistant steward; Barbara McKenzie, Cres; Mary DeLong, Pomona; and Leora Sayre, Flora.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Arley Judy and Rev. and Mrs. Ray Mann.

A birthday party is planned for Sept. 18 honoring everyone whose birthday comes in June, July, August and September.

Members whose birthday does not fall in those months should bring cake or ice cream for refreshments.

Reds Take Pair From Braves

ATLANTA (AP) — Manager Sparky Anderson of Cincinnati is convinced southpaw Don Gullett will become a consistent 20-game winner in the National League.

"He's only 75 per cent of what we'll eventually get out of him," Anderson said Sunday after Gullett's four-hit shutout in the nightcap carried the Big Red Machine to a sweep of a doubleheader over Atlanta 14-6 and 7-0.

Sunday's victory was his 17th in 25 decisions and marked the first time the power-hitting Braves had been blanked in 77 games, the last time by Clay Kirby of San Diego on June 23.

Gullett says he could win 20 games this year since he should get four more starts but "three out of four is looking ahead too much. I'd rather just take them one at a time."

Johnny Bench gave him all the support needed early in the game when he smacked a two-run homer over the center field fence in the fourth inning and rapped a two-run, bases-loaded single to left in the fifth.

George Foster sparked an 18-hit assault in the opener, driving in five runs with a three-run homer, his first of the year, and a two-run single.

Joe Morgan homered in each game for the Reds, a two-run blast in the opener and a solo shot into the right field seats in the nightcap, his 22nd of the season.

Ken Griffey also homered in the opener, his first this year.

Introducing a new dance step for those whacky, wonderful folks in the National League's East Division. It's called the Title Tap-Out. You take one step forward and then two backwards.

That kind of treadmill pace has created a five-team scramble for the division title with the St. Louis Cardinals holding the lead only because they're the only team in this silly division able to play .500 baseball. Barely .500, but in this division, you can't argue.

The Cardinals dropped their third straight game Sunday, bowing to Chicago 5-4. But they remained on top of the division because Pittsburgh managed to blow a six-run lead and lose to Philadelphia 8-7. Meanwhile, the suddenly-hot New York Mets tightened things up even more, beating Montreal 3-0.

Elsewhere in the NL Sunday, Houston edged San Francisco 5-4. Los Angeles ended its nine-game losing streak, beating San Diego 5-3, and Cincinnati swept a doubleheader with Atlanta, taking the first game 14-6 and winning the second 7-0.

As a result of the Title Tap-Out, the Cards are still first despite a three-game losing streak and a mediocre record of 72-71. Pittsburgh is second, one game out. Montreal is third, 2½ behind while Chicago and New York are tied for fourth, a mere three games behind.

Phillies 8, Pirates 7

Pittsburgh blew an early 7-1 lead and bowed to Philadelphia 8-7 on Willie Montanez' ninth inning home run.

Philadelphia scored six runs in the sixth inning to tie the score after Willie Stargell, working on a string of eight consecutive hits, had boomed two doubles and his 39th homer for the Pirates.

Mets 3, Expos 0

Two Montreal errors gave New York a pair of unearned runs and the Mets beat the Expos 3-0.

Dodgers 5, Padres 3

Joe Ferguson ended an 0-for-17 slump with a three-run homer that lifted Los Angeles to a 5-3 victory over San Diego.

Astros 5, Giants 4

Lee May boomed a three-run homer in the eighth inning, moving Houston to a 5-4 victory over San Francisco that dropped the Giants 5½ games back of the Reds.

Tom Weiskopf Tops Nicklaus

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — "This was very much a personal goal for me," Tom Weiskopf said after pulling away from Jack Nicklaus for a victory in the prestige-laden World Series of Golf. "I've had such a tremendous year and it meant so much to me to beat Jack, who is the greatest player in the game."

"We've never really played head to head, and this is more a match play type thing. I really wanted to beat him. 'I think that's why I won.'"

But Tom Terrific, who was making his first appearance in this elite event that brings together the winners of pro golf's four major championships—the American and British Opens, the Masters and PGA—wasn't trying to compare himself with Nicklaus.

"People have done that as long as I've been playing," Weiskopf said after his triumph Sunday.

"I don't think you can do that. He's won 14 major championships. I've won one. He's won how many tournaments all together?"

Then he paused and flashed a big grin.

"But I'm working on it. Maybe they can compare us when we're both retired."

Reggie McAfee of North Carolina set an Atlantic Coast Conference record when he ran the mile in 3:59.3 last April.

Club Championships Held At Upper Lansdowne Links

Upper Lansdowne Golf Links held its annual club championships with Dick Buskirk taking the men's title, Carol Scanlon was the ladies winner and Marty Fullen took the honors in the Junior division.

Runners were: Garner Cox, men's; Mona Welch, ladies; and Steve Marshall, juniors.

Scott Marshall and Dennis Smith were the Wednesday Night League champions with Walt Halstenberg and Ed Dean placing second.

Husband and wife tournament honors went to Damon and Mona Welch with Joe and Eloise Walker taking low net.

Walt Halstenberg defeated Al Axe in the men's senior club championship finals, 54 years of age and over.

Tim Tosca downed Brent Trego to capture the 15 and under junior championship.

In the ladies flight championships, Eloise Walker was the first winner and Mary Ann Smith took the honors in the second flight.

Winners in the men's flight championships were: Bill Carl, first flight; Dennis Smith, second flight; Tom Wagner, third flight; George Weller, fourth flight; Fred Leddinham, fifth flight; Paul Ramey, sixth flight; Grover Peters, seventh flight; and Ed Tucker, eighth flight.

Mona Welch was named the most improved lady golfer of the year and Walt Halstenberg received the honors as most improved golfer in the men's class.

It was the 10th anniversary of Upper Lansdowne and Mr. and Mrs. Don Collins were presented a plaque by their daughters, Connie and Nancy, in honor of the occasion.

Dayton Flyers Rip Youngstown

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The college pigskin bounced around for the first time this season Saturday, and Dayton Flyers Coach Ron Marciniak said, "The ball bounced our way."

The Flyers posted a 22-0 shutout triumph over Youngstown State University in Dayton in a game that saw 11 fumbles and three pass interceptions.

"The ball bouncing one way or another is part of the game," said Marciniak, in his first season at Dayton. "But the kids helped it keep bouncing our way. Our players are aware that contact makes the ball bounce a certain way."

Flyers defensive back Donnie Keeling recovered a fumble in the first period that set up Dayton's first TD. He also intercepted a pass and blocked a field goal by the Pelicans to protect the shutout.

Marciniak's team held onto the elusive ball long enough at one point to pull a sneak play. In the third quarter, his team lined up to make a point after a touchdown from placement.

Instead of booting the ball through the uprights, a Flyer back raced through the Pelican line to convert the attempt for two points.

Dayton team spokesman said the officials were not caught unaware. He said that they were told the play was likely to occur.

Meanwhile, six other Ohio teams got into action against out-of-state foes. They split—three wins and three losses.

Ashland College captured 34-27 a victory at home over Franklin of Ind. The Eagles were paced by the running of senior tailback Tom Mahl who carried 24 times for 155 yards and backup tailback Dave Burnison who added 123 yards on 11 attempts.

Central State staged a comeback effort to down Morehead State at Ashland, Ky., 31-24. Defiance defeated Olivet, Mich. 28-13.

Xavier University traveled to Philadelphia to take a 49-7 thumping from Temple.

Elsewhere Delaware routed Akron 45-24 and Georgetown, Ky. blanked Findlay 13-0.

The Ohio college football action gets into full swing this Saturday, led by Ohio State University. The nationally-ranked Buckeyes meet Minnesota in Ohio Stadium.

Coach Chuck Mills, of Wake Forest, is concerned with his team depth. His team dropped nine of 11 games last season.

Freshman Jay Haas shot three rounds of 71 to win the Atlantic Coast Conference golf title last April.

BETTER WITH AGE — Walt Halstenberg won the senior men's club championship and was named the most improved golfer of the year at Upper Lansdowne Golf Links.

Dean Chenoweth 2nd In Boat Race Point

DETROIT (AP) — Dean Chenoweth's Miss Budweiser captured the title heat of the National Champions Regatta for unlimited boats Sunday but lost the national point race to Mickey Remund and Pride of Pay 'N Pak.

Remund assured himself of the championship with two heat victories and a third place—worth 1,025 points—to Chenoweth's tally of 1,200 points.

It was Chenoweth who starred in the third and feature race of the day, coasting to an easy 13-second win over Jim McCormick in the Redman II at an average speed of 106.382 m.p.h.

In Memoriam

Dear Beloved husband and father, as one year has rolled around,
you are not forgotten loved one,
nor will we ever be as long as life and memory last.
We will remember thee
Sadly missed by Mrs. Doner and Family.

In loving memory of LaRue Blankenship who passed away September 10, 1972.
What would I give to clasp his hand, his happy face to see no hear his voice and see his smile, that meant so much to me.
The rolling stream of life rolls on, but still the vacant chair recalls the love, the voice, the smile, of the one who once sat there.
Nothing can ever take away the love a heart holds dear. Fond memories linger every day, remembrance keeps him near.
Loving wife and children.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Righter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Solid and secure methods in which much energy is expended but little risk of chances of any type taken are favored. Think in terms of your overall aims and what you can do to secure data that can make them an integral part of your existence.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Make sure you do not dash off to some activity you know little about and keep busy getting your home life more secure and comfortable. Plan how to make your fondest dreams come true.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) If you do not confide your plans to others, you can do much to improve your monetary position just at this time. Listen to good advice from a clever friend. Follow it to your real advantage.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Avoid that nagging associate and contact a higher-up who can help you with your problems. Then take care of financial problems very intelligently. Show more affection for mate.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Fine new ideas come to you now that can make your future more prosperous, happy, if you do something about them quickly. Work at a measured pace so you do not overture yourself. Show more broad-mindedness with others.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Come to a better understanding with both debtors and creditors so your position in life is improved. Do not spend too much money for entertainment that you will later regret. Avoid one who has an eye on your assets.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Come to a better understanding with associates and improve your mutual affairs. Know what your true position is with the public in general. Think along more intellectual lines. Early to bed tonight.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you get to work early instead of going off on some tangent, you can get out of some present difficulty. Take good care of your health. Evening is then fine for light entertainment.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You want to have a good time, which is fine, provided you take a friend along who keeps you from spending too much. Entertain those who have done you past favors. Show how much you appreciate them.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You can do much to improve the situation at home as well as add to public prestige today. Either entertain or be entertained by the right people. Listen to your radio more.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You are able now to secure the information you need, get the errands done that are important if you start early. Use care in buying and selling. Handle any transportation matters well.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Use especial care where monetary matters are concerned so you do not make any mistakes. Use your intuitive faculties since they are accurate now. These can also be helpful where romance is concerned.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Know what is expected of you by kin and try to please them more, and this also holds true where associates are concerned. You are dynamic because of the Full Moon. Make sure to control your temper, though.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those highly discriminating, careful young people who has to be taught early to mix kindness and humanity with these fine qualities, as well as to be more objective when dealing with others, or feelings can be hurt badly. An ideal chart for career in laboratories, research, whatever requires much patience and working with details, figures. Give spiritual training early. Music is good as a hobby.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — The CBS Television network is broadcasting a good deed disguised as a comedy show on Tuesday night. It's the second-season debut of "Maude" and the opening salvo concerns alcoholism.

You should watch this program, particularly if you have someone in the family or a friend who has more than a little trouble with booze and refuses to admit it. Get them to watch the show, too.

It's the first in a two-part episode on the dark side of drinking. It's damned funny and has great lines. But it accurately points out that an alcoholic isn't necessarily a tattered Skid Row lush.

In this case, the man with problems is Maude's husband, Walter. He starts out with a cocktail party at home, guzzles until the wee hours with a friend and comes to at dawn with the inside sweats.

"I knew the party was getting out of hand when you started playing Frisbee with the frozen pizza," Maude growls as her old man and the friend, played by Conrad Bain, teeter about in agony.

Walter starts the healing process with a Bloody Mary. Alone. His wife and the friend, both hung-over, vaguely realize he has a problem. They vow to go on the wagon and urge him to join them. The friend even bets Walter $100 that "I can stay off the sauce longer than you can."

Walter, drink in hand, ponders the dismal offer. "Okay," he finally says. "It's a deal! Let's drink to it."

He promptly loses the bet during lunch at a fine restaurant, where he surreptitiously whips out a flask and spikes his Shirley Temple with stronger waters. It happens the same day he makes the bet.

He later comes home stoned, announcing that "all I did was stop off at the club and have one drinka fifth."

From there it follows the all too-familiar pattern of the wife drinking to keep up with her husband — it can and does happen the other way — and the two of them proceed to get wiped out on martinis.

These are the bare bones of the proceedings. I don't want to give away the ending, but rest assured it is unexpected, depressing and rings awfully, awfully true.

The Sept. 18 episode shows what Walter does when he finally admits he's on the way to becoming an alcoholic. Neither program mentions Alcoholics Anonymous, although the dialogue is spiked with phrases about drinking that AA members will catch with no trouble at all.

The writers, Bob Weiskopf and Bob Schiller, deserve great credit for excellently sketching the problem drinker. They were aided, at their own request, by a man with more than a passing knowledge of alcoholics.

He's Thomas J. Swafford, CBS' vice-president for program practices and standards. He contributed suggestions, not as a CBS executive, but as an executive of the National Council on Alcoholism.

Local Man Teaches Final Auditions Esperanto At OU-C Planned For CBC

Lewis Cook Jr. will be the instructor of an Esperanto course at the Chillicothe Campus of Ohio University this fall.

Esperanto, introduced to the world in 1887, has become the international language. Many people have learned to speak Esperanto after only three months study.

Cook's course will be a ten week introduction to the language, its use, grammar and pronunciation. The class will meet on Wednesdays starting Sept. 26, 6-8 p.m.
To register now, call 775-9500.

Final auditions for the Circleville Boy's Choir are being held this week for the 1973 choir.

A limited number of positions are available in the singing group which is composed of boys in grades four, five, six and seven in any school in Pickaway County and the Circleville School System.

Membership is available only at this time and is gained by an audition with the director, Paul Dunkle. Scheduled auditions may be made by calling 474-2459 this week.

Woman Trains Carp To Take Nourishment From Baby Bottle

CULLMAN, Ala. (AP) — Jo Welber, operator of a marina on Smith Lake, has trained a school of carp to surface beside the dock and suck food from a baby bottle.

She feeds the fish, ranging in size from 3 to 12 pounds, several times a day, depending on the number of visitors to the marina, located in remote north-central Alabama.

The baby bottle is filled with a mixture of chicken mash and stale bread, and the end of the nipple is cut off. Mrs. Welber squirts a little of the mixture on the water to lure the carp, then holds a bottle out for them to take more.

The carp — a scavenger sucker fish — can empty a bottle with two or three quick sucks on the nipple in a few seconds.

"I've lost several bottles and I don't know how many nipples," Mrs. Welber said in an interview. "They jerked them right out of my hand, they sucked so hard."

It all began, she said, when her husband Charles put some captured fish in a wire cage to see how long they would live.

"I noticed when feeding them stale bread that other fish would come up close to the cage to try getting some," she said. "So I decided to try feeding some alongside the marina dock."

Some bream came first and now they swarm in by the hundreds to eat stale bread from her hand. The carp soon followed, and 16 different carp have surfaced to feed from the bottle.

Mrs. Welber said she decided to try a baby bottle because of the shape of the carps' mouths and the way they sucked the bread from her hand.

"I thought I'd never stop laughing when the first one took the bottle. It was the funniest thing I'd ever seen. They took it as naturally as a new born baby," she said.

We think the average parent should know as much about drugs as the average teenager

Sometime soon you'll want to talk with your teenagers about drugs. The sooner the better. We hope this page gives you something to start talking about, because we want you to get to your kids before somebody else does.

THE OPIATES

When most people refer to "narcotics" this group of drugs is what they are talking about. Opiates are used medically as pain killers. On the street they cause addiction for the user and pain for society in general.

Opium
a sticky, brown substance made from the unripe seeds of the poppy plant. Opium can be eaten, but it is usually smoked in an opium pipe.

Morphine
is extracted from opium. It is one of the strongest medically used pain killers, and is strongly addictive.

Heroin
this strongly addictive drug is a waste product prepared from morphine. Outlawed even from medical use, heroin is the most commonly used drug among addicts. It can be sniffed, injected under the skin, or into a vein. Street slang for heroin includes "scag," "H," or "junk."

"On the Nod" or nodding. The state produced by opiates. Like being suspended on the edge of sleep.

Mainline or "to shoot up" — injecting a drug into a vein.

"A Hit"
street slang for an injection of drugs.

Works or Fit
the apparatus for injecting a drug. May include a needle, and a bottle cap or spoon for dissolving the powdered drug.

A Fix
one injection of opiates, usually heroin.

Junk
heroin so named because it is never pure when sold on the street.

Junkie
an opiate addict.

Skin Popping
to inject a drug under the skin.

A Bag
packet of drugs, or a single dose of an opiate. Amount of the drug in the bag is denoted by price, a nickel bag ($5), a dime bag ($10).

"Cold Turkey"
describes the withdrawal that occurs after repeated opiate use. The addict can become irritable, fidgety, perspiration increases, there is a lack of appetite. The main problem in discontinuing opiate use is not getting off the drug, it's staying off.

Tracks
scars on the skin left from repeated injections, or black beauties

Overdose
cause of over 200 teenage deaths in New York City last year. Death is caused because the part of the brain that controls breathing becomes paralyzed.

Addiction
physical dependence on a drug, so that when the drug is taken repeatedly, and stopped suddenly, physical withdrawal occurs.

THE STIMULANTS
These drugs stimulate the system, or make a person more lively. While they are not physically addictive like the opiates, they produce a psychological dependence or craving.

Amphetamines
these stimulants are taken in tablet or capsule form, or injected into the blood stream. Among the widely used amphetamines are:
Dezedrine — or "dex" or "dexies".
Benzedrine — or "bennies".
Methedrine — or "speed" or "crystal meth".
Biphetamine — or "black beauties"

Speed Freak
person who repeatedly takes amphetamines or "speed", usually intravenously.

Mental Effects of "Speed" amphetamines produce a decreased sense of fatigue, increased confidence, talkativeness, restlessness, and an increased feeling of alertness. As dosage increases amphetamines can produce irritability, distrust of people, hallucinations, and amphetamine psychosis.

Amphetamine Psychosis
a serious mental illness caused by overdoses or continued use of amphetamines. The person loses contact with reality, is convinced that others are out to harm him. The most frightening part — this psychosis sometimes continues long after person has stopped taking the drug.

Rush
the brief heightened state of exhilaration at the beginning of a high.

Crashing
withdrawal from amphetamines, the swift descent from an amphetamine high to severe lows of depression.

Cocaine
another kind of stimulant, derived from coca leaves. It is sniffed as a white powder, or liquefied and injected into a vein. It produces a fast and powerful feeling of elation. Cocaine does not produce physical dependence (addiction), but does produce a strong psychological craving.

Coke street slang for cocaine.

PSYCHEDELICS

The medical classification of all mind altering substances. "Psychedelics" change a person's perception of his surroundings.

Hallucinogens
Those psychedelics which cause hallucinations.

LSD
probably the most powerful psychedelic. Reactions to LSD are extremely unpredictable. Distortions in time and space. Brighter colors. Vivid sounds. Feelings of strangeness. A sense of beauty in common objects. Sometimes fear and panic. Sometimes even psychosis.

Flashback
a user can in some instances be thrown back into the LSD, experience months after the original use of the drug. Other possible risks of LSD, which are being thoroughly researched, include (brain damage) and chromosome breakage.

Acid
a slang term for LSD. A frequent LSD user is an "acid head".

Drop
to take any drug orally. LSD is usually dissolved in water, and may be placed on a piece of blotting paper. The term is to "drop acid."

DMT
a powerful psychedelic prepared in the laboratory as a powder or liquid. It is usually injected into the vein or smoked along with marihuana or in cigarettes.

Psilocybin
this psychedelic comes from a mushroom. It is less potent than LSD and takes a larger dose to get the effect.

Peyote
the peyote cactus, causes pronounced visual effects. It is used in a religious ritual by some Southwestern U. S. and Mexican Indians and its use in these rituals is legal.

Mescaline
"mesc" is the common name for this drug which may also come from the peyote cactus. Stronger than peyote itself, mescaline also causes vivid visual impressions.

DOM
called STP by users. The effects of STP can last for two or three days.

Marihuana
the crushed and chopped leaves and flowers from the hemp plant. Sometimes smoked in cigarette form, sometimes smoked in pipes. Reactions can be: a giddy feeling like drunkenness; changes in perception and mood; feelings of well-being or fear; and rarely hallucinations. Slang terms for marihuana are "grass," "pot" or "weed."

Joint
a marihuana cigarette.

Roach
the butt end of a joint.

Stoned
describes the intoxicating effect of marihuana, or really any drug, or alcohol.

Hashish
called "hash". Also prepared from the flowering tops of the hemp plant. Hashish is smoked in a pipe or taken orally, and is more powerful than marihuana.

THC

tetra hydro cannabinol. Purified extract of the resin of the hemp plant. Also made in the laboratory. It is thought to be the substance in marijuana and hashish that causes the mind altering effects of these substances. Not found on the street in the U.S.A.

Trip
a name for the reaction that is caused by a psychedelic drug. A bumper is an unpleasant or frightening trip.

Head
someone who uses drugs frequently.

THE DEPRESSANTS
The category of drugs that depresses the functions of the brain.

"Downs" street slang for depressants.

Alcohol
ethyl alcohol, a depressant because it slows the functions of the brain that control thinking and coordination. In high doses it produces drowsiness and sleep. Alcohol is an addictive drug, since after prolonged or continued use, it can cause physical dependence (alcoholism), and when discontinued, causes withdrawal symptoms at least as serious as the other addictive drugs.

Barbiturates
these drugs are in the group called sedatives medicines to make you sleepy. Barbiturates are taken in capsule or tablet form. They cause physical dependence (addiction), and after repeated use, physical withdrawal does occur when these drugs are discontinued. Among the common commercial names for barbiturates are:
Seconal or "reds"
Nembutal or Yellow Birds
Amnital or "blue heavens" or "blue-devils"
Luminal or "purple hearts"
Tuinal or "rainbows"

Barbiturate Overdose
more people in the United States die as a result of an overdose of barbiturates (usually suicide) than of any other single substance.

Intoxication
sedative or tranquilizer intoxication is similar in its symptoms to alcohol intoxication. Driving while intoxicated can be extremely dangerous, and is thought to cause at least 25,000 traffic fatalities a year.

Tranquilizers
drugs that calm tension and anxiety. These drugs do not cause sleep except in high doses. Tranquilizers are taken in capsule or tablet form. Some common commercial names for tranquilizers are: Equanil, Miltown, Librium, and Valium.

INHALANTS used chiefly by children under 15; extremely dangerous, even lethal among substances which are inhaled and produce a high are: glue, gasoline, lighter fluid, and refrigerants. Continued inhaling has been reported to cause severe anemia, liver damage, brain damage, and death.

NOW! SEE THE FRESHNESS FOR YOURSELF
Consumers rightly expect the foods they buy to be fresh and good. That's why Kroger pampers and protects and rushes the foods we sell to stores at their peak of freshness.
Because we do take such care, Kroger is confident of the freshness of the foods we sell. That's why we can guarantee them on a replacement or money-back basis.
And that is why we open date foods for freshness. Some 1900 foods sold by Kroger now carry an open date . . . easy-to-read, such as AUG 30 . . . to let you know the last day a product will be sold so it will stay fresh for an average usage period (or longer) after you buy it and carry it home.

For more than a year, Kroger has been open dating foods—everything from milk, eggs and bread to many items other grocers don't open date, such as jelly, snack crackers and peanut butter. Now that same service has been broadened to include pre-packaged fresh fruits and vegetables and fresh meats. They'll all carry the freshness date so you can see for yourself how fresh they are.
At Kroger, we believe that consumers have the right to know more about the foods they buy. We're open dating more foods than just about anybody else in the country. This is one more Kroger service designed to help you—the consumer.
WE HEAR YOU
...and we're trying to help!
